To be a leader in any industry, corporations must have leaders at every level ready to focus on how to meet the evolving needs of valued customers. That challenge starts with working together in a way that fosters imaginative and quick-witted problem solving. As Wilson shows in LEADERS IN MOTION, imagination, wit, smart solutions and can-do energy start within each and every one of us, and have the greatest impact when we consciously choose to contribute and to lead.

—Dennis Mabes
